

REDEFINING THE STORY OF INCARCERATION AND OPIOID USE

Share your experience of incarceration and street drug use to help guide research
We want to hear from you!

Dr. Fiona Kouyoumdjian and her research team are inviting 10-15 people with experience of incarceration and street drug use to help guide a research project. We are looking at information on people who died from opioids that experienced incarceration and want your help understanding the results.

Participants will attend three 1-hour virtual small group workshops
Dates: Wednesdays October 12, 19 and 26, 2022.

Time: 7-8:00pm EST

Who can participate:

1. People who have experience using opioids or street drugs AND have been incarcerated in Ontario within the past 5 years
2. People who have lost a loved one to street drug use in or shortly after incarceration

Compensation:

Participants will be compensated $120
